

MTL-4000

MTL-4000 indoor public payphone is a new arrival in the wide assortment of Microtech Industries' telecommunication products. It is an ideal smart card based payphone for commercial usage with enhanced features. Equipped with state of the art technology, MTL-4000 payphone has proven reliability and requires minimal maintenance. It provides large and small operators with a rewarding business opportunity. Security is one of the prime features providing the highest level of protection against unauthorized access.

Features:

- Call Progress Processing
- Operational with commercial and non-commercial line
- Liquid Crystal Display
- DTMF/Decade dialing
- 16 Comprehensive Metering Options
- Multi-level password capabilities
- Self-test and comprehensive diagnostic menu for on-site maintenance
- Complete remote configuration, management and control through NMS
- Remote diagnosis and initialization
- Telephone line powered
- Smart card technology
- Does not engage line when on-hook
- Easy tariff change facility through NMS
- Built-in V.23 Modem
- Comprehensive call logging and reporting facility which includes following information
 - Dialed numbers
 - Price in local currency
 - Time elapsed during call
 - Units consumed during call
 - Remaining units in card
 - Card serial number and face value

- Starting time of call
- Date of call
- Call termination information
- Visual online update of call charges to user which includes
 - Number of units consumed Number of units remaining in card
 - Time elapsed for call
 - Charges in local currency
- Fax/Extension and telephone line interface
- Data protection for all features in absence of external battery
- 4-Step volume control
- High reliability
- Compact design
- Easy installation and maintenance
- User friendly
- High level of security through LPU and NMS
- Comprehensive after sale customer support service
- Low cost of owner ship